IN A PUBLIC DERBY TRIAL

Best Pal Qualifies Gallantly for Next Saturday's Big Race.

Lady Madcap Beats Gossip Avenue —Upset, Gladiator and Paul Jones Arrivals for Derby.

(BY J. L. DEMPSEY)

LATONIA, Ky., June 8.—The $2,500 purse, exclusively for three-year-olds, which featured today's card, brought out a New Richmond candidate for Latonia Derby honors in the shape of E. R. Bradley's Helmet—Padula colt Best Pal, which won after a desperate drive with Captain Mac, jockey Lyke being an effective contributory agency in the victory, for he gave him an extra skillful ride. Lyke's early over-zealousness will, however, cause a lay-off in his future activities for five days, the term that he was suspended by the stewards for boring over and crowding the others soon after the start.

The race took on a Latonia Derby preliminary aspect from the fact that so many eligibles were among the starters, some certain to go in the big fixture, which will have its decision Saturday. The early running was dominated by Kinburn and he forced a terrific pace for three-quarters, but he could never get far away from Best Pal, Sterling likewise following closely, but on the stretch he gave way completely. Best Pal, responding well to urging, gradually diminished the distance between himself and Kinburn, and at the last eighth appeared to have the race won easily, but at this juncture Captain Mac, which had suffered from early interference, came with great speed and forced Lyke to his best efforts to keep Best Pal in front. Rouleau, which was expected to be quite a factor, stumbled at the start and raced wide most of the way. He was worked out a mile and a quarter in 2:08 for his start in the Derby. Kinburn went the mile and a quarter in 2:07.

Intense hot weather was the order here this afternoon and the track was lightning fast. The racing was again interesting and interspersed with upsets.

The $1,800 purse race, bringing together some speedy two-year-olds, furnished an interesting duel between Lady Madcap and Gossip Avenue, ridden respectively by the veterans Howard and Nicol. The pair of old-time saddle artists plied whip and heel on their mounts all through the stretch and having singled out well in advance of the others, continued their duel until right at the finish, where Lady Madcap succeeded in getting her head in front.

PORT LIGHT SCORES NARROWLY.

Four of the races were under claiming conditions and had big fields, but they furnished some excellent sport. Port Light had to do his best in the opener to outstay Pullux. The second race went to Repeater after he had his work cut out to down Camouflage. Mabel G. held sway all the way and won from Cormoran.

Rummic was luckiest in the sixth race, in which a number of two-year-olds met, and he led for the entire way to win from Winchester and the much-interfered-with Tom Norris in third place.

S. A. Clopton, in charge of Upset, owned by Harry Payne Whitney, arrived this morning and will give the colt his final preparation for the Latonia Derby, to be decided next Saturday. At present the plan is for jockey Rodriguez to have the mount on him. It is just possible that trainer James Rowe will, at the last minute, decide on shipping Wildair here, too. He is intended to be a starter in the Belmont Stakes, but if the redoubtable Man o' War is to go Wildair is apt to come to these parts to help his stable mate in the big Latonia race.

Paul Jones, winner of the Kentucky Derby and recent hero of the Suburban Handicap running, was another arrival this morning and will go in the rich Latonia Derby and strive to earn the $5,000 bonus that goes with his winning the race because of his Kentucky Derby success. Trainer William Garth came with the horse and feels confident that his charge will give a good account of himself in the race despite his five pounds penalty, which will bring his weight to 131.

W. Booth, in charge of Gladiator, supposedly owned by Arnold Rothstein, was also among the eastern arrivals, and the colt will go to the post in next Saturday's big Latonia race.

Prince Pal, which is counted among the certain starters in the Latonia Derby, figured in a sensational mile and a quarter gallop this morning, and he covered the distance in easy style in 2:05⅘. Prince Pal has not raced up to the form expected, but he is gradually rounding into his top form and there will be much support for him in these parts in the Latonia Derby.

Jockey Ridenour, under contract to A. L. Kirby, was an arrival this morning from Canada and he will ride here during the meeting.

ASQUITH PICKED THE DERBY WINNER

NEW YORK, N. Y., June 8.—The highest and the lowest of England's subjects love a fine horse and a good horse race. Outdoor sports of all kinds are a part of the life of the people of Great Britain, and chief among these pastimes is racing.

There are few men more occupied with the problems of the day than Herbert Asquith, ex-premier of England, but a cable to the World says: "Former Premier Asquith has appeared in an entirely novel and surprising character as a close student of race horse form. He told the Star today that he spotted Spion Kop for the Derby some days ago and gave his reasons at a country house party for believing in the horse's staying powers.

"Nobody ever knew Asquith took any interest in horse racing, but he said he had done so for a long time, though he never bet. He didn't bet on Spion Kop, adding:

" 'I wish I had put twenty pounds on him and I'd have been rich today."

FINEST TESTIMONIAL TO THE HORSE

Great Crowds at the Races a Tribute to the Thoroughbred and Faith in the Sport.

NEW YORK, N. Y., June 8.—"This is the finest testimonial that we have had paid to the thoroughbred horse in my time," was the comment of Major August Belmont, president of the Westchester Racing Association and chairman of The Jockey Club, as he stood in the stewards' stand at Belmont Park on Decoration Day after the heart-stirring finish for the Toboggan Handicap.

Before him the vast lawn was thronged with spectators while the grandstand, tier upon tier, was a sea of eager faces. The clubhouse and its generous lawn had no vacant spaces. Taking in the vast assemblage with a sweeping gesture, he continued: "The presence of so many of our best people here today is not only a tribute to the horse but an evidence of their faith in the sport and those who are responsible for its conduct. It amply repays owners, trainers and all others connected with the turf for the sacrifices made when the situation was blackest. It should stimulate every man interested in racing—no matter from what angle he may view it—to give greater efforts to its promotion so that many more lovers of clean outdoor sport may get a more intimate acquaintance with the thoroughbred horse.

"I am impressed by the size of this gathering, but in looking over it," continued The Jockey Club's chairman, "the thought has been uppermost that we have many recruits of a most desirable character to racing this season. Perhaps the war has had something to do with this. Much has been told in written words, in spoken words on the lecture platform, and through the medium of the picture screen of the part the horse played in the great conflict. They have seen him at work and at play and they have also seen him die for his country. The result, as I see it, is in an increased interest in the horse and particularly the thoroughbred, whose part in the production of cavalry remounts is so well known.

"If some of those who have made it their life work to meddle with the pleasures of the people would view this scene today without bias, could mingle with the masses and imbibe some of the spirit which has brought them here, there would, I am sure, be a clearer conception of the fundamentals of racing and a better understanding all around. It would be idle to say that this throng was actuated in coming to Belmont Park by a desire to speculate on the chances of this or that horse to beat his competitors. There is something bigger and broader at the bottom, and I believe it is a love to see these splendid horses in the racing tests without which our breeding experiments would be aimless.

"The English Derby, run at Epsom on Wednesday, is a fine illustration of the value of these trials of speed and stamina as a guide to breeding. Hammerkop, a famous long-distance mare, which had won more than $50,000 in stakes for her owner, most of her races at from a mile and three-quarters to two miles and a half, when mated with Spearmint, a winner of the Derby and the Grand Prix de Paris, gave the world Spion Kop, a three-year-old that not only was good enough to win the blue riband of the turf, but establish a new record for the race as well.

"On Saturday last, when Man o' War won the Withers Stakes, the crowd surpassed any previous gathering here when that stake was decided. Thousands of horse lovers who had read about Man o' War but had never seen him came along with other thousands who were as familiar with his genealogy as I am because they were going to see in action what the critics pronounce the best of his age at this present day."

Pausing a moment and taking in the orderly, well-dressed assemblage which packed every nook and cranny of the plant, Major Belmont concluded with emphasis, "and the best part of it all is that we have won this fight for the horse without the aid of the pari-mutuel. The people maintain the sport and enable us to offer these prizes. It is their contributions at the gate which have made this sort of thing possible."

ALLEGED PROFITEERING IN HORSE FEED

New York Dealers Accused of Being Especially Extortionate in Their Prices.

LEXINGTON, Ky., June 8.—The officials of the Thoroughbred Horse Association have been asked to investigate charges that feed dealers at New York race tracks are profiteering in the price of hay and oats. In communications received at the office of the association here it is stated that one New York dealer is charging eighty dollars a ton for hay, and no first-class hay at that. The price from another is $74 per ton and this man is getting $4.40 for oats. It is alleged that a New York dealer went to Havre de Grace and tried to get the feed dealer at that track to raise his price from $55 per ton for hay, which he is said to have refused to do. At Montreal the price for No. 1 hay, delivered at the stables on the race tracks, is $38 per ton and oats are delivered at the market price. Good long straw is $30 per ton.

"We are undertaking to ascertain first what is a fair price for and a fair profit on hay and other feeds at the various points," said secretary Thomas B. Cromwell of the Thoroughbred Horse Association, "and to that end we request that all horsemen forward such information to the Lexington office as speedily as possible. Meanwhile the officials of the various racing associations are asked to give the matter their attention. If the prices are exorbitant it is an easy matter for the track owners to quickly remedy it by refusing the right of delivery to profiteers."

DEVONSHIRE MEETING TO OPEN JULY 3

Bradley Wilson has been at Latonia for some time conferring with his associates in the Devonshire track and horsemen in regard to shipping to the Canadian track near Windsor for the meeting which is intended there, beginning July 3 to 10, inclusive. Racing secretary N. M. MacFarlane has now in course of preparation the book of the meeting, which will in addition to no race of less value than $1,200, embody three stake races. The leading one will be a mile and a quarter dash for three-year-olds and over with $5,000 added. A race of $3,000 added is for three-year-olds exclusively at a mile and a sixteenth, and a dash at five-eighths for two-year-olds, with $3,000 added, completes the stake races.

DORVAL JOCKEY CLUB MEETING OVER

Pen Rose and St. Paul Win Principal Races of Closing Day Program.

MONTREAL, Que., June 8.—The best meeting in the history of the Dorval Jockey Club came to a close this afternoon with the running of a well arranged program. The attendance was large and several of the races furnished exciting contests. The going was again heavy, which was responsible for numerous withdrawals from some of the races. The feature race, the Speed Handicap, proved an easy victory for Pen Rose, which led all the way and won pulling up. St. Paul, the King's Plate winner at Toronto, made amends for his defeat here the other day when he beat a band of good Canadian breds in the third race, a dash of a mile, in which he carried top weight. St. Paul, after appearing like a beaten horse at the eighth post, came again and displaying splendid gameness under punishment in the final drive outstayed Salvatelle and Sturdee to win by a head.

Jockey Joe Rodriguez has been engaged to ride Harry Payne Whitney's Upset in the Latonia Derby and will leave here for Kentucky some day this week. W. Rawley is making the lad's engagements here.

J. B. Dunn has arranged to ship the two-year-old Madeline Lillian from Toronto to Hamilton tonight, where she will be freshened up for the racing at that meeting. Dunn has obtained first call on jockey J. Butwell for the remainder of the Canadian racing season. McDermott will do the light riding for the stable.

A carload of horses are on their way from Tijuana for Montreal. It is made up of the G. R. Allen's Kentucky Boy; J. A. Parsons' They Shall Not Pass, Candelaria, Medford Boy, Mack O'Day; E. E. Major's Jim Thorpe, Lady Harrigan, Viva Cuba; B. W. Creech's Hattie Willdo, Hattie McCarty, Lady Hester, Onwa, and J. Sharkey's July Fly. Jockey G. Yeargin accompanied the G. R. Allen stable.

Ten claims were put in for Verity, winner of the seventh race on Monday, and in the drawing J. Kennedy secured the horse for $1,105. The other claimants were C. Irby, S. Midow, R. V. Haymaker, J. P. Fones, T. D. Taylor, W. A. McKinney, Milton Smith, George McSweeney and T. Hodge.

As an aftermath of the claiming of Annabelle and Poacher by C. Price yesterday a ruling was issued by the stewards suspending Stuart Polk and his horses and also J. Price and the horses which run in his name. The charges were that Price's claims were what are termed friendly ones. The general impression is that a great many claims of the same nature have been filed recently.

Harry Giddings and James Arthur were among the arrivals from Toronto. Their horses were shipped from Thorncliffe to Blue Bonnets. Several of the smaller owners shipped their horses to Toronto last night, including those of M. Burton, B. E. Graham, H. L. Hatchett, B. A. Mock, J. Hope, J. S. Baldwin and P. Sheridan.

Herman Conkling and J. B. Campbell, who officiated at the recent meeting at Thorncliffe Park, were arrivals. Both gentlemen are on the official staff at Blue Bonnets.

Tommy Gorman, secretary of the Connaught Park Jockey Club, has the promise of almost every horseman racing here to ship to Ottawa at the conclusion of the racing at Blue Bonnets. He reports that every stall at Connaught Park has been inspected by a government official. Every stable on the grounds has been limed and the entire plant overhauled since racing was last held there. The membership of the club has increased wonderfully this spring.

Sheridan Clark, who filled the positions of racing secretary and presiding judge at Dorval, has been on the job and was congratulated by the management on the well-balanced programs he complied during the meeting. He will officiate at King Edward Park.

Cecil Knight and R. V. Haymaker put in claims for Handfull and in the drawing Haymaker secured the horse. E. L. Fitzgerald claimed Indian Chant out of the same race.

Jockey J. Connors was suspended for rough riding.

KENTUCKY RACING COMMISSION FUNDS

Should Be Turned Over to the State, Is Report of Examiner to Governor Morrow.

FRANKFORT, Ky., June 8.—The State Racing Commission should turn over to the state the money collected by the commission, and there is now due the state $13,822.02, is the report of State Inspector and Examiner James, made to Governor Morrow. In the general fund there are $4,546.93 and in Liberty bonds $5,000 and in a stallion fund $1,108.04. Since E. G. Stoll became secretary the books show that he has on hand a balance to the credit of the general funds amounting to $3,167.05, making the net balance due the state $13,822.02.

Since the creation of the commission its membership has been made up of some of Kentucky's distinguished citizens and horsemen, and so far as the records show or information obtained, the conduct of the commissioners and secretaries has been good.

"The racing commission has never been identified as a department of the state government, and why its relations have not been more closely interwoven as a sister department I do not know," says Mr. James. The report is the first made on the commission in the fourteen years that it has been in existence.

"The law creating and the court's construction of its provisions make it perfectly clear that it is a state department," says Mr. James.

In 1915 the different racing associations of the state offered to donate $5,000 to the racing commission for the purchase of thoroughbred stallions to improve the breeding of horses in Kentucky. The offer was accepted, and upon the recommendation of Prof. J. J. Hooper, chief of the bureau of animal husbandry, a number of stallions were purchased, nine of which are still in the hands of the commission. With the prices of corn, hay and oats so high, Inspector James says there is a disposition on the part of the keepers to turn them back to the state, and he recommends that Prof. Hooper be consulted about the proper course to pursue.

Inspector James commends the commission for raising $300,000 for the American Red Cross. When the $300,000 was distributed to the various Red Cross chapters there remained a balance of $3,017.54 in bank, which Inspector James did not treat as funds belonging to the state.

BELMONT PARK'S GOOD CARD

On Watch Takes Richmond Handicap, Day's Main Attraction.

Shoot On Accounts for the Harlem Selling Stakes—Carnarvon in an Easy Victory.

NEW YORK, N. Y., June 8.—The Richmond Handicap, at three-quarters of a mile down the chute, the Harlem Selling Stakes, for three-year-olds, and an allowance race, at a mile, were the features of the program at Belmont Park today. The Richmond Handicap attracted the chief interest, the field being composed of a better class than the other races. The Harlem suffered from withdrawals, leaving only two contestants, Shoot On, making his first appearance of the season, and F. Houseman's American Soldier. G. W. Loft's On Watch accounted for the handicap, coming from behind and disposing of the leaders at the end to win easily from Padriac and His Choice.

W. R. Coe's Shoot On was considered to outclass his sole competitor and was held at a short price, which the Star Shoot colt justified by racing his opponent into early defeat and winning with ease.

The Wilson entry was held best in the opener, but the Plaudit colt Normal easily disposed of Ramkin entering the stretch and drew away into a big lead at the end.

The English-bred colt Carnarvon had things his own way in the second race, leading throughout.

Another foreigner scored when Tufter, the French-bred son of Macdonald II.—Reg. Pompon, beat Youneed a nose in the fifth race. Tufter following the pacemaker closely from the start and wore him down in the final strides.

The Coe entry, Polythia and Mavourneen, proved a keen disappointment in the closing dash, which was won by Muttikins, carrying the silks of John E. Madden, by a safe margin.

O. Webber bid Normal, winner of the first race, to $3,800, the colt being retained by owner Hopper with the customary additional bid.

The Crown Stable will be shipped to Canada at the close of the meeting here.

It is rumored that Mrs. W. M. Jeffords has sold the contract on jockey L. Ensor to G. A. Cochran.

N. L. Bronner has purchased the two-year-old Bluffer from J. E. Madden for $6,500. R. Colston will train the youngster.

CURRENT NOTES OF THE TURF

Insurance, John A. Payne, General Agent, Cincinnati, Ohio. Telephone West 2487.—Adv.

Ed Tribe will do the starting at the King Edward meeting, which follows that at Blue Bonnets.

According to reports from the West 10,000 people witnessed the closing day of racing at Tijuana on Decoration Day.

Wm. Walker has shipped his horses from Toronto to Connaught Park, Ottawa, jockey C. Duggan accompanying the stable.

Twelve of J. Arthur's horses have been shipped from Toronto to Hamilton to rest up until the opening of the Hamilton meeting.

Judge Joseph A. Murphy has gone to Toledo, Ohio, for a brief visit before going to Hamilton, where he will serve as one of the stewards.

There recently died in England Mr. J. G. Bulteel, best known as the owner of Manifesto, perhaps the greatest steeplechaser the world ever knew.

The following is a list of officers of the Western Racing Association, that operates Devonshire track, near Windsor: John Lumsden, president; James Arthur, vice-president; Bradley Wilson, general manager.

Monty Murphy got a cheap horse when he claimed the four-year-old Chasseur for $3,500. Light Brigade, sire of Chasseur, is a horse of heroic proportions and has a world of bone. Chasseur was intended for cross-country work but didn't take to the game.

FRANK O'NEILL PRAISES SPION KOP

When Frank O'Neill, the American jockey, returned to France after piloting Spion Kop to victory in the English Derby, he was interviewed, and the cables report him as follows:

"Don't quote me as saying that Spion Kop is the best horse I ever rode. There is class to Spion Kop, however, and in my opinion he is a better horse than Tetratema or Allenby and will beat them again at even weights. The race was won on its merits. As for me, I was lucky. It has been my ambition for a long time to ride a Derby winner, and now that ambition is satisfied."

Followers of racing who returned from London commented on O'Neill's remarks as more modest than the facts warranted. His ride on Spion Kop, they declared, was a prime factor in that horse's victory. They say that O'Neill timed his drive to a nicety, after laying off the pace until rounding Tattenham Corner. He then slipped through on the rail, saving about twenty yards, and won with something to spare.

It was the third time that O'Neill has had a mount in the Derby. He was left at the post on Kennymore in 1914, while he was unplaced on another occasion.

When O'Neill was riding in this country he was a quiet, well-mannered chap, and his success abroad has evidently not spoiled him.

MORE WINNERS FOR A. K. MACOMBER

Word was received from France recently that A. K. Macomber's three-year-old colt Boscobel, by Rabelais—Froward, by Sir Dixon, had won the Prix Daru on May 20, and that the filly Blind Fate, by Ecouen—Martha Gorman, by Sir Dixon, had also scored brackets for the California turfman, whose horses are doing so well abroad. Both were bred by J. E. Widener.

H. G. T., Indianapolis, Ind. Ragnarok was 475 to 100 straight in his race of June 5.

A. R. J., Chicago, Ill. When the name of a horse that has not been entered is included in a parlay the parlay is void as to that horse.

Bud M., Chicago, Ill. In the race inquired about Pluviada was 170 to 100 to win, not 1710 to 100, as was misprinted. A correction was published.

O. C., New Orleans, La. Both Careful and Step Lightly belong to W. J. Salmon. Had both started in race 47670, May 29, they would have raced as a coupled entry.

W. J., Indianapolis, Ind. Eurus was a four-year-old when he won the Suburban Handicap in 1887. No three-year-old won that race until Africander did it in 1903.

L. C. C., New Orleans, La. Arrowhead is a three-year-old bay gelding, by Uncle—Xarco. Arrowhead Inn is a three-year-old bay colt, by Durbar—Ravello II. It was the latter which was entered and ran in race 47344 at Jamaica May 19.

Inquirer, Memphis, Tenn. Up to June 1 of this year Capital City had started in twenty-eight races since January 1, of which he won five. In the same space of time Don Dodge started in twenty-nine races, of which he won ten. That is the best answer to your query.

VETERAN HORSEMAN PASSES AWAY

Michael Danaher Dies in Baltimore Hospital as Result of an Accident.

Michael T. Danaher, who died in a Baltimore hospital on Thursday, was a veteran of the turf and almost the last of the old school horsemen who were equally at home in preparing a horse for racing through the field or on the flat. He passed away as the result of injur' sustained when he was struck by an automobile while leaving the Pimlico course during the spring meeting of the Maryland Jockey Club.

Danaher was an Irishman and had the sharp, caustic wit of many of his race. He was ever ready with an answer that on occasions could be as sharp and biting as vitriol. He was a familiar figure at all the race courses, winter and summer, for more than fifty years and he was known from New York to San Francisco. In the early days of the racing career of the Dwyer Brothers, "Mike" Danaher, as he was known, was close to Michael, the plunging member of the famous racing firm. He shared in a coup with Michael Dwyer on Avalon at Sheepshead Bay in 1885 that gave Jimmy Kelly, Cridge, Lucien Appleby and other big bookmakers of that day a jolt which they didn't get over for a long time. Avalon, by Aramis—Sprightly, by Lexington, was a brother to that good horse Aretino raced by John Carter. He was a cripple when Danaher got hold of him and it took a long time to patch the gelding up. Danaher was quite an athlete in his younger days and had also trained foot runners and he applied some of the common sense used in getting human beings ready for their best efforts into his methods of handling crippled thoroughbreds. It worked on Avalon, which came out in such form in 1885 that he took the measure of performers like Barnum, Tom Martin, Tyrant, Col. Sprague, Gleaner, Jim Renwick and Modesty. The bay son of Aramis was at his best when he stepped in a hole at Jerome Park and wrenched an ankle so badly that his turf career was ended.

Danaher never got over the loss of Avalon and in his latter days maintained that he was first class. That he was a good performer up to a mile and an eighth the records show. Another fair performer that Danaher developed was Syntax, by St. Martin. He had many steeplechasers, and of these Killarney was probably the best.

A link with the racing history of the past, Michael T. Danaher will be missed.
